

Camp War Eagle Code of Conduct

(To be read and signed by both parent/guardian and camper)

Camp War Eagle is committed to creating a camp environment in which all of our campers can have a safe, enjoyable and meaningful time. One of the ways in which we seek to achieve this goal is through the concept of “values-based camping.” Through this concept, Camp War Eagle strives to help our campers in the following ways:

- * Develop a more positive self-esteem
- * Develop greater self-confidence
- * Interact with positive, Christian role-models
- * Become more independent
- * Learn the importance of friendship
- * Develop interpersonal relational skills

In order for the implementation of “values-based camping” to be most effective, and to help ensure a safe and enjoyable camp environment for all campers, Camp War Eagle has identified certain expectations/rules which all campers must observe. We also think it is important that both parents and campers be aware of these expectations/rules prior to arriving at Camp War Eagle. In addition, these expectations/rules will be reviewed with your camper at the beginning of each session. Please review these expectations/rules with your camper and then sign the following statements.

1. Campers are to respect other campers and staff, as well as their belongings.
2. Bullying, in any form, is not allowed. This includes emotional as well as physical bullying or intimidation.
3. Use and/or possession of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, knives, firearms (except in authorized camp activities) and other items deemed dangerous is strictly forbidden. Violation of this policy will result in immediate dismissal from camp.
4. Cell phones are strictly prohibited. Other electronics, such as iPods, video games, computers, etc., are also prohibited. Any such item brought to camp will be taken up and returned on Closing Day.
5. Campers will be expected to participate in all scheduled Camp War Eagle program activities unless exempt due to health or parental restriction.
6. Inappropriate or abusive language is not allowed.
7. Inappropriate physical contact with other campers or staff is not allowed.
8. Camp War Eagle rules and regulations are to be followed at all times.

In order to serve all of our campers and provide a positive experience for them, Camp War Eagle implements a thorough system of camper monitoring. If it is determined that a camper is failing to adhere to the Camp War Eagle Code of Conduct, or is in any other way creating an environment detrimental to the overall camp experience, Camp War Eagle reserves the right to enforce consequences designed to correct such behavior. Consequences may include such things as: limitation of privileges, verbal and/or written warnings, parental notification, or, in extreme cases, expulsion from Camp War Eagle. Additionally, campers who repeatedly fail to adhere to the Code of Conduct may run the risk of not being allowed to attend Camp War Eagle in the future. If you have questions regarding the Camp War Eagle Code of Conduct, please don't hesitate to contact the Camp War Eagle office.
